- RYC – some things during the event, could have gone better, differently. Appreciate everybody's participation and support. Powerpoint for all the volunteers, all of the sponsors. Put together an album on RYC facebook page.
- Some things that could have gone better, need to limit our baskets from 3-5 historically, but need to maintain that. Less auction items from auction partner, narrow those down a little bit, need more squares, have people on the floor that needed to get the money collected, 4 people working the room.
- Also need more volunteers, day of event to keep people motivated and buying, did well with fund a need, we did really well from prior years, auctioneer did really well, would like to use them next year.
- Needed more help with decorations, may need to start at 6pm to move more people.
- Strip is class of 2023 because it was in email as header for description and he went with it.
- Need to verify the money, but it looks good.
- Cakes went well at auction, and will get DHS catering to make them all next year.

- FMP Joy Sherratt and team - Students, fmp students Jennifer Angel Diaz work on boards to help with curriculum. Lush, second year mentor engineering academy and engineering conference. Experience with his freshmen mentors was really good, Sunny Ma made a lot of new friends. Yashi, currently a junior run varsity track, joined because one of my mentors was super welcoming. Sindrani varsity wrestler and orchestra JOIN FOR LEADERSHIP ROLE. Already ne tyr in this program has helped me
- Joy Sherratt, teaches health and co-coordinator of fmp. Grew so vigorously wanted the upper class to help welcome new students and promote inclusivity.
- 850 freshmen 174 upperclassmen mentors, 34 teacher advisors.
- When the bell rings for lunch meet twice a week, there before freshmen, trickle in, say hi to all of them, decide what to do for the day. Check in with freshmen, most activities are bonding games. More happens outside of the twice a week meeting. A big part of fmp is to make sure that all the kids feel secure, even the quiet ones. M0022404 FMP budget increase 20 y 0 n 0 a

- Senior Night Snacks (class of 2023) - discussed during class report
- PFSO Nominations & Board Elections - Board is set with an open position for vice president,
- Most class reps have agreed to ongoing positions, needing shadow RYC and chairs for fireworks.

XII. Meeting adjourned at 8:51 p.m. Next meeting Monday May 23rd at 6.45 pm.
