- VI. Treasurer's Report/Financial Update - Ellen Ladouceur & Christy Li
 - A. Reviewed monthly financials. Several fundraisers so far this year which have done well.
 - B. Clarify square usage, difficulty to check out when ordering different types of items from the same fundraiser. Needs to be multiple orders.
 - C. Filed tax extension.
 - D. Class of 2020 needs follow up on what is their balance in class funds and what has cleared and what has not.
- VII. ASB Report - Michael D'Ambrosio with class officers Eddie Padnos & Sidney Tran
 - A. Sidney: DubLead gives back and is promoting different Dublin businesses every week. Small business support. Advertising on social media for students.
 - B. First Zoom bonding for leadership class.
 - C. Eddie: Leadership hosted a Gael Day themed event at Dio Gilato for all DHS students to receive a discount on purchase. Another Gael Day is planned in two weeks at Uji Time.

- D. Started DubLead Encouragement Campaign to reach out and support students. We are hoping to help lift the spirits of students. Many students feel isolated and are struggling. We are hoping this campaign will help. Some examples of what we are doing are, posting encouraging uplifting quotes, pictures and messages on social media. We have started lunch time zooms in big groups and then break out to smaller groups. Officers are leading the lunch time groups and hoping to expand after the holidays.
- E. Mr. D'Ambrosio: DHS magazine coming out the second week of February. Will reach out to PFSO to have a couple pages.

VIII. Funding Requests -

DHS yoga/dance teacher took a class over the summer to be certified and is requesting $1,000 to cover training. Catheryn will follow up with Maureen for more information and bring a request on line if needed.
